This is our final week and my final newsletter ever. It has been an honour and a privilege to be the head teacher of this wonderful school and to have made a difference to the lives of so many children in my care.

Thank you for all your support over the years and kind words and wishes for the future.

Belton School is not just a building it is much more than that. It is built of unique individuals who all co-operate to make a community; one I am immensely proud of. We have had an amazing year with so many highlights and I would like to thank everyone who has made this year such a success. I wish everyone all the very best for the future and have a wonderful summer.
