

Being a Belton Linguist we:-

Are confident in communicating through another language.

Are enthusiastic about learning a language

Make friends with children in other countries

Are able to use different skills within our language learning – speaking, listening, reading, grammar and writing

Have an understanding of different languages and cultures around the world

Enjoy songs, rhymes, stories and games in another language

Are inquisitive by asking simple questions in a target language