

A Thank You to our Parents and Carers
Thank you to all parents and carers who attended our parents afternoons and evenings this week. These went very well in spite of us being two classrooms down in terms of space. Our local community police officer, PC Kevin Bradley was on hand to talk to parents about the importance of teaching our children to keep safe online (CEOPS). If you weren't able to see him there is some excellent material available at <https://ceop.police.uk/safety-centre/>

Respect For Our Neighbours in Sadlers Wells

We have been asked by our neighbours in Sadlers Wells and School Lane to be careful when parking especially at the beginning and end of the school day. Grass verges are being damaged and road junctions obscured.

Thank you for your co-operation in this matter especially as there is increased traffic and parking. Don't forget the car park at the reccy is available and is a safe place to park. Enjoy the short walk with your child through the park.

Sea Otters are Scientists

As part of their work as Australian mineralogists, the Sea Otters have been researching the best way of keeping their drinks cold when mining in the Australian Outback!

Sensory Garden Update

Following a period of quiet during the winter months things are progressing and we are looking forward to being able to use it soon. Dani and his team from the Leicestershire and Rutland Wildlife Trust have been working again and Zoe Weston (Poppy and Elliot's mum) will be working with children to create the mosaic in the next few weeks.

News from our Governing Body

Our governors are undertaking monitoring visits next week and are looking specifically at teaching and learning in all four classes. They will be going on a learning walk and talking to children and teachers.

The governors would really like your feedback about school and your experiences and would be grateful if you could return the completed questionnaire sent out with this newsletter to the school office. Thank you.

Coming Up

Handwashing Day

On Wednesday 15th March we have invited our school nurse, Alison Griffiths into school to train all our Meerkats and Bees about the importance of washing hands in school and at home. This will be followed by asthma training for our staff.
